

Frühe Hilfen Bonn – the network for mother, father and baby, a combination of more than 50 institutions in Bonn all with different services on offer. We are there for you, whether you are pregnant, or you have a young child in your family who is up to three years old.

Dear parents,

The birth of a child is the beginning of a new chapter in the lives of the whole family. It takes time and patience until everything has settled down.

With “early support” we can support you with the various services we have on offer!

We are there for you, when you

- have questions about life with an infant or small child
- want to compare notes with other parents
- require every day practical support
- want counselling help either in the comfort of your own home or over the phone
- want a family midwife to accompany you

We are also happy to help you on your search for further services for you and your child offered in your area!
